Who may sign

For a corporation: A “responsible corporate officer” or duly authorized representative. A “responsible corporate officer” is (i) a president, secretary, treasurer, or vice-president of the corporation in charge of a principal business function, or any other person who performs similar policy or decision-making functions for the corporation; or (ii) the manager of one or more manufacturing, production, or operating facilities employing more than 250 persons or having gross annual sales or expenditures exceeding $25 million (in second quarter 1980 dollars), if authority to sign documents has been assigned or delegated to the manager in accordance with corporate procedures.

For a partnership or sole proprietorship: A general partner or the proprietor, respectively, or duly authorized representative.

For a municipality, state, federal or other public agency: Either a principal executive officer or ranking elected official, or duly authorized representative.

A “responsible corporate officer”, general partner, proprietor, principal executive officer of a public agency, or ranking elected official may assign his or her signatory authority for this Certification to a duly authorized representative, which is a named individual or generic position (e.g., plant manager, operator of a well or well field, superintendent) having overall responsibility for facility/site operation or the company’s or public agency’s environmental matters, by submitting a letter to the Bureau of Permit Management stating said authority and naming the individual or position.
